BLANK BEAUTIES

Empty Frame Gallery

Create a textured, tone-on-tone wallscape made from mismatched frames painted the same color as the wall they adorn.

You'll Need:

Dutch Boy® Platinum® Plus paint Assorted paintable picture frames

Paint tray and liners

Painter's tape

Flat paintbrush

Fine-grit sandpaper

Hammer

Nails

Clean, damp cloth

Wall and Frames: Silvery Gray 436-2DB

Here's How:

- Step 1 Select a paint color identical to your wall color, or repaint the wall to match frames.
- Step 2 Prep frames by lightly sanding them; wipe with clean, damp cloth to remove dust or debris.
 - Tip: To reduce prep time, use ready-to-paint frames.
- Step 3 Paint frames using the flat brush, being careful to coat edges and carved details; allow to dry, following suggested drying time on the can label.
 - Optional: Frames may require a second coat of paint.
- Step 4 Hang finished picture frames on the wall.

Tip: Trace frames on kraft paper. Cut and use paper pieces and painter's tape to plot gallery on the wall.
