Here’s How:

Step 1  Wipe wall with the clean, damp cloth to prepare painting surface.

Step 2  Lay down the drop cloth to protect floors; use painter’s tape to cover trim, molding, ceiling and any adjacent walls.

Step 3  Apply paint just inside taped area with the angled brush, then paint remainder of the wall with the woven roller; remove painter’s tape while paint is still damp; allow paint to dry 24 hours.

Step 4  Find the middle point of the wall and lightly mark 6 inches on either side with the pencil; from each of these marks, measure and mark 12-inch stripe intervals until you reach each corner of the wall.

Tip: For consistent stripes, measure the width of the wall to determine the number and width of stripes. You may need to increase or decrease stripe width (12-inch width shown in picture) based on your wall width to avoid ending on an incomplete stripe.

Step 5  Use the level and pencil to lightly mark vertical lines the height of the wall.

Step 6  Once stripes are drawn, starting at one end, place a small piece of tape inside every other stripe; the unmarked stripes are to be painted the accent color.

Step 7  Affix painter’s tape along vertical lines, making sure the edge of the tape is positioned inside the marked stripes; apply pressure to tape to ensure a tight seal with wall.

Step 8  Use the woven roller to paint between taped areas of unmarked stripes; roll as close to ceiling and trim as possible and fill in gaps with angled brush.

Step 9  Remove the painter’s tape while paint is still damp; clean up any mistakes with the clean, damp cloth; allow paint to dry for 24 hours.
